We Are Who We've Been Waiting For!

The tactics to achieve civil rights in this country may have changed over the last 40 years, but the need to be engaged in the struggle continues. From ending apartheid in South Africa, conquering tanks in Tiananmen Square and facing water hoses in Birmingham, young people have always been at the forefront of civil and human rights movements. Now, more than ever, our generation must stand up to continue the fight for freedom and justice in this world.

How to Take Over Your School (Without Getting Kicked Out!)

Many students get involved in campus activities and hold leadership positions that sound great. However, few are able to navigate the system to create transformational change amongst the students and the administration. Learn strategies that will help you to revolutionize your campus and push your leadership to the limit...all while remaining a member of your school's student body!

Take Off Your Shirt & Do Something!

The I-pod and MYspace generation has been led to believe that they can change the world by simply showing up and wearing a t-shirt. Sure, you may be expressing your views by serving as a walking billboard, but what are you really doing to help others? By integrating traditional community organizing tactics, new technologies and raw energy, learn how you can truly be a catalyst to create change in this world.

Be Your Own Celebrity

Did you know that you're a superstar? Just like celebs, you can attract attention by the things you do and motivate others by the things you say. But far too often, we look to movie stars and musicians to influence our viewpoints and actions. No matter what you think your talents or flaws may be, you were born to shine in '09! We all have the power and potential to live our best life possible. Be unique! Be yourself! Be your own celebrity!
