Sheyann Webb-Christburg

Topic: My childhood experiences with Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Growing up in the Selma Civil Rights Movement

Summary: This is it: An Empowering and Inspirational American story about a little girl's fight for civil rights, equality, and justice in America. Motivational Speaker Sheyann Webb-Christburg depicts her childhood memories with Dr. Martin Luther King and Johnathan Daniels, who both had a profound impact on her life during turbulent times in the Selma Civil Rights Movement. She encourages her audiences to find true purpose in a world that is filled with societal challenges and gives them roadmaps to help them understand that no matter what their background, they can break out of non-productive patterns and become real contributors to society. She also challenges audiences to innovatively weigh solutions, resolve historic and systemic social imbalances and inequalities.
