Roland S. Martin – Award-Winning Journalist, Author, and Host of *Roland Martin Unfiltered

Roland S. Martin is one of the most influential voices in modern journalism and political commentary. As the host and managing editor of Roland Martin Unfiltered, he delivers unapologetic, fact-driven analysis on politics, culture, and social justice issues impacting the African American community.

A 2023 NABJ (National Association of Black Journalists) Hall of Fame inductee, Martin's career spans more than three decades across television, radio, and digital media. He previously served as managing editor and host of NewsOne Now on TV One, senior analyst for the Tom Joyner Morning Show, and CNN contributor, where his coverage of the 2008 presidential election earned him the prestigious Peabody Award.

Martin is also the CEO of Black Star Network, a digital platform dedicated to empowering independent Black-owned media voices. His daily broadcasts reach millions of viewers seeking perspectives often ignored by mainstream outlets.

A sought-after speaker, Martin engages audiences with thought-provoking insights on leadership, race, politics, and the power of truth in media. His signature message challenges students and professionals alike to stay informed, get involved, and use their voices to make meaningful change.

Martin is the author of several best-selling books, including The First: President Barack Obama's Road to the White House, Speak, Brother! A Black Man's View of America, and White Fear: How the Browning of America Is Making White Folks Lose Their Minds.

He holds a Bachelor of Science in Journalism from Texas A&M University and a Master's in Christian Communications from Louisiana Baptist University.

He is a proud member of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc.
